FOR THE FIRST TIME

Men's EHF EURO 2020 – A Championship to Remember

The memories that mean the most to us often have a common denominator – it was the first time. The first goal. The first win. The first championship that, when looked back at, still serves as a great point of reference for our great passion for the sport.

The Men's EHF EURO 2020 will be the first time that three nations have jointly hosted the tournament. Austria, Norway and Sweden are the hosts for this historic championship. It is also the first time that 24 teams will compete for the medals in the European Championships.

And the very first time that a soccer stadium is hosting a handball tournament; Tele2 Arena in Stockholm seats over 20,000 spectators.

From January 9 – January 26, the host countries are excited to welcome players, managers, journalists, and perhaps most important, supporters, to make the Men's EHF EURO 2020 unforgettable.

A championship where dreams come true, where winners are crowned, and where lifelong memories are created. Welcome to Austria – Norway – Sweden!

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE HISTORY OF THE EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIPS, 24 TEAMS WILL COMPETE FOR THE MEDALS IN AUSTRIA, NORWAY AND SWEDEN IN 2020.
