2. Review of Cases

- GRE vs. EHF

The award was discussed; it was underlined that the recommendations were interesting but it remained unclear whether any implementation would take place.

- Mirkulovski vs. Metalurg Skopje

As a judge in the FIFA Dispute Resolution Chamber, Vice-President Lambrecht underlined that the jurisdiction question is also central but handled less restrictively in order to be competent as much as possible. It was agreed that further discussions should take place on this topic to assess the option to apply a similar approach.
