1. Welcome and Introduction

Martin Hausleitner welcomed the members of the Nations Committee Women to the meeting highlighting the EHF structure and various positions and tasks of the board members to be elected/nominated during the meeting. He encouraged strong representation of the federations requesting cooperation and pro-active communication with the federations and to provide the input to the EHF.

2. Status Report EHF Competitions

Reference to be taken to the minutes of the common NCM/NCW meeting;

The following topics were additionally discussed:

- EHF feedback to federations on the EURO Qualifiers 2022 matches was requested.
- A clear procedure for selling the use of the advertising positions (LED, floor stickers) during the EURO Qualifiers is required; the same situation is to be expected for women's competitions respectively there will be even more federations who are not able to sell the advertising rights.
- Hausleitner initiated a discussion how to develop a smaller federation and underlined the importance of developing the players and starting with grassroots activities to get a sufficient number of players, establish players' academies to develop top players and provide life time education for handball players, participation at YAC competitions. Furthermore, the key element of development is participation of the clubs in the international competitions.
- He further presented open issues with the IHF: Topic of the players' agents, Model of cooperation IHF-EHF for Anti-Doping controls based on the changed WADA regulations last year, Transfer regulations to be updated in respect of implementation of beach handball for the season 2022/23.
